Mr. Rowland Hughes, Director
Bureau of the Budget
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hughes:

In accordance with our telephone conversation, attached is the draft of an Executive Order establishing the Board of Consultants on the Foreign Intelligence Activities of the United States Government. The Attorney General has reviewed this and suggested some modifications, which were made.

I would appreciate your concurrence in this Executive Order, and the formal approval of the Attorney General. The President plans a meeting of the Board on Monday, 23 January 1956, so it should reach the White House by that time.

Sincerely,

S/
Allen W. Dulles
Director
